

INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT FOR FUND SHARING: NORRIS COMMUNITY CENTER PROJECT

THIS INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT, is entered into by and between Collier County, a political subdivision of the State of Florida (hereinafter referred to as the “County”); and the City of Naples, (hereinafter referred to as the “City”);

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners for Collier County has approved funding assistance to the City of Naples for the Norris Community Center Project; and

WHEREAS, this funding was approved in the Fiscal Year 2003 budget for Collier County;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants contained herein, the County and the City hereby agrees as follows:

Section 1. The County shall pay three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) toward the costs of the Norris Community Center Project, payable as reimbursement to the City. The City submitted the invoices to the County for said project by on August 22, 2003.

Section 2. Improvements to the Norris Community Center are deemed to have a useful life of twenty (20) years. The City shall not assess a surcharge to non-city residents of Collier County for the use of the Norris Center during the life of the project. In the event that any of these obligations are violated, City shall refund to County the useful life remainder value of the facilities improvements based on twenty (20) year straight-line depreciation with no residual value.

Section 3. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by the parties hereto. This Agreement shall take effect on the last day of execution by the last party to execute same.

Section 4. This Agreement shall be recorded by the County in the Official Records of Collier County within thirty (30) days after this Agreement is fully executed.
