WHAT IS EARLY VOTING

Early voting is a time period prior to Election Day, at locations designated by the Supervisor of Elections according to state law, where registered voters can vote their ballots.

During early voting, you must vote in your county; however, you are not required to vote in your precinct. It is ideal if you wish to vote closer to work or school, or if you are unavailable on Election Day.

DATES

Saturday, March 5, 2016 through Saturday, March 12, 2016.
