CITY CLERK, PATRICIA L RAMBOSK, RECEIVES STATE ASSOCIATION'S HIGHEST AWARD

Naples City Clerk Patricia Rambosk was awarded the Robert N. Clark Memorial Award at the Florida Association of City Clerks (FACC) Summer Conference and Academy that was held in June 2016. It is the highest professional award granted by this 600 member association.

FACC President, Tracy Ackroyd Howe, MMC, City Clerk of the City of Clermont made the presentation.

The Robert N. Clark Memorial Award is presented by the FACC, to recognize and honor a municipal clerk who has significantly promoted and advanced the ideas and goals of the profession by actively participating in the improvement of municipal government in the state and local community.

The nomination for this prestigious award noted Clerk Rambosk's accomplishment to spearhead the website project in furtherance of her goal to promote community transparency. In addition, she has brought many functions and processes of local government together to operate more efficiently through the use of technology by streamlining many of the City's day-to-day operations. Her continued passion and commitment qualified the City of Naples to apply for and receive the (FGFOA) Florida Government Finance Officers Association's inaugural (ACE) Advanced Commitment to Excellence Award for Innovative and Outstanding Work in Website Transparency on behalf of the City. She has been a speaker at the FGFOA School of Government and recently served on the Florida Tax Watch Center for Government Efficiency Panel on public records representing the Florida League of Cities and the Florida Association of City Clerks.

Clerk Rambosk earned the designation of Certified Municipal Clerk August 16, 2013 and the designation of Master Municipal Clerk on December 22, 2015 through the International Institute of Municipal Clerks.
