CITY OF NAPLES

Upcoming Public Meetings

Affordable Housing Strategy

As part of an effort to create an Affordable Housing Strategy for the Naples Community Redevelopment district, the City of Naples and the Naples Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) are hosting a public input meeting for residents and property owners to share their views on the issue. The CRA is seeking input as to how it might best be able to preserve existing affordable housing units in the CRA and where opportunities to create additional affordable housing may exist. Residents or employees of businesses in Naples who have difficulty in finding affordable housing within the City are encouraged to attend, however, the meeting is open to all members of the Naples community to come and share their experiences and suggestions on the issue.
