PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE

2024 FEMA FLOOD MAP OPEN HOUSES

Thursday, February 29, 2024

One or more other elected or appointed officials may be in attendance at this meeting.

Considering the recent adoption of the new FEMA flood maps, the City of Naples will be hosting two small, informal open houses for the public on Thursday, February 29, 2024. The open house aims to provide you with more information regarding the updated flood maps and to address any questions or concerns you may have.

Location: Baker Park - Eva Sugden Gomez Center

Address: 50 Riverside Circle, Naples, FL 34102

Date: Thursday, February 29, 2024

Two Sessions:

Morning Session: 9:00am – 12:00pm

Evening Session: 5:00pm – 7:00pm

Your attendance and engagement are highly valued as we work together to ensure the safety and well-being of our community in light of these changes. Please feel free to reach out to the City of Naples Building Department's Floodplain Coordinator, Robert Dorta, at 239-213-5039 or via email at rdorta@naplesgov.com.

To gain insight into the changes within the 2024 FEMA Flood Maps and determine if your property is affected, please follow these steps:

1. Determine if your property is within the City of Naples or within Collier County
2. Click the appropriate link provided below to access the City's Forerunner website or the County's FEMA Flood Map Service Center.
3. Enter your property address to access your property's flood information.
4. Note that the "Effective FIRM" refers to the 2024 FEMA Maps, while the "2012 Historic FIRM" pertains to the 2012 FEMA Maps. Although the 2012 maps are not the current standard, residents have the option to utilize them if building to the higher of the two elevations, whichever map indicates the higher elevation.
